2020 HATC Foundation Resident Scholarship Program Recommendation Form

Dear community leader,

You are receiving this letter because one of our applicants for the 2020 HATC Foundation Resident Scholarship Program has selected you to be his/her recommender.

In order to encourage academic excellence and community responsibility among our high school students, the HATC Foundation, a non-profit subsidiary of the Housing Authority of Travis County (HATC), is continuing a scholarship program for graduating high school seniors who are preparing to enter college. The HATC Foundation will award two (2) full-ride (tuition and fees covered) scholarship for an Associate's Degree and two (2) one-time $2,500 scholarship for a Bachelor's Degree.

Along with the application and other required materials, a recommendation form is needed from a community leader who has personal knowledge of our applicant's leadership skills, strengths, and abilities. Please complete the attached recommendation form.

Make sure your form is received by the HATC Foundation no later than 5:00 PM on Friday, April 10, 2020. Please return your recommendation form by e-mail, mail or fax at:
